

Dear Parent/Carer,

Your child's school subscribes to Purple Mash, the multi-award-winning online learning space. We have been making educational software for over 20 years but just recently we have a launched an exciting new print publishing project.

Our focus is on bringing you inspiring children's books that have a positive and important message. As a Purple Mash subscriber, you have free online access to all our titles. And if you'd like to own them in print you can enjoy an exclusive subscriber discount of 50% off! This offer is valid for a whole year and can be used multiple times.

In addition to being great stories, all our titles are published in support of charities and good causes - for every book purchased we donate £1! Our fulfilment is carried out by 2econd Chance CIC, who help vulnerable adults develop their confidence and work-based skills, with the goal of re-entering the job market.

To order any of our books, visit purplemashpublishing.com and use code PURPLE-PARENT at the checkout for your exclusive discount.

Our first two releases are the uplifting Kobe Ketchup and the Food Bank Adventure, and the heart-warming REDCAP.

Kind Regards,

The Purple Mash Publishing Team
