

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Add the suffix ‘-ing’ to the words in brackets to complete the sentence below.

(construct)

Ash’s family had started _____ a house. They were

(begin)

_____ a new life as settlers.

2. Circle the correct homophones to complete the sentences below.

Ash was finding it hard to accept/except that his family would no longer be moving around. He had liked a regular change of scene/seen and had begun to groan/grown about the new living arrangements.

3. Complete the sentences below using ‘a’ or ‘an’.

The family came face to face with ___ sabre-tooth. ___ yapping and pounding noise filled the air. ___ pack of dogs arrived on the scene and made ___ growling and howling noise.

4. Tick one word to complete the following sentence.

_____ being threatened by a sabre-tooth, Ash's dad reassured the family that they were in a safe place.

Tick one

Despite

☐

Although

☐

Unless

☐

Yet

☐

5. Rewrite the sentence below in the present perfect tense.

The family begin building a new house.