

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Circle the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

River found it a pleasure/pleature to cook for a large group of people. She didn't measure/meature the ingredients but had a picsure/picture in her mind of the finished meal.

2. The sentence below needs two apostrophes. Insert them in the correct places.

Reds dog Arrow was given a friendly welcome by the other settlers dogs.

3. Look at the sentences below. Insert a comma after each fronted adverbial.

Before adding the grain River poured in the milk.

Now we're here to stay we can have regular harvests.

After stroking his new puppy Ash noticed that it had a special mark on its back.

4. An error is underlined in the sentence below.

Ash were far too excited to have Arrow by his side to mind about helping with the farming.

Write the correction in the box.

5. Expand the following phrase by adding adjectives and a preposition phrase.

His dog