

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Circle the correct spellings to complete the sentences below.

Seb and Ellie had a little discussion/discucian/discition about the fact that they did not have permition/permician/permission to be down inside the volcano. They peered through a grill in the wall and saw a group of people who looked like electrissions/electricians/electritions, but they were scientists who were working on new inventions/invencians/invensions.

2. Circle the correct homophones to complete the sentence below.

Before Ellie and Seb had a chance to worry about weather/whether or knot/not they had been scene/seen, they heard a voice asking them why there were there/their.

3. Look at the sentences below. Fill in the gaps with either 'a' or 'an'.

Ellie and Seb were having quite ___ adventure. Seb wanted to see what was behind the door.

“It’s got ___ handle, look!”

Ellie said that it was probably just ___ inspection cupboard.

Before Ellie could stop him, Seb turned the handle. The door opened with ___ deep clanking sound.

4. For each sentence, put a tick to show whether it is written in the present perfect tense or the simple past tense.

Sentence	Present perfect tense	Simple past tense
Ellie and Seb have climbed down a ladder into the crater.
The door opened with a deep clanking sound that echoed around the crater.
The children have been seen by someone.

5. Rewrite the sentence below so that it has the correct punctuation.

Listen he whispered I can hear voices.