

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Choose the correct homophones to complete the sentences below.

“We’re hear/here, Joan,” said Jen’s mum.

The family were visiting the animal sanctuary to see weather/whether they had a suitable pet for Granny.

Jen thought that a dog would make a grate/great pet.

2. Insert a comma in the correct place in the sentence below.

Bounding up like an over-friendly Labrador Mrs Lovewell introduced herself.

3. Underline the adverb in the sentence below.

“Lubber!” it squawked, flapping its wings wildly in a cloud of feathers.

4. Rewrite the sentence below as direct speech.
Remember to punctuate your sentence correctly.

Mrs Lovewell asked Treasure where his manners were.

5. Rewrite the two sentences below as one sentence using an appropriate coordinating conjunction.
Remember to punctuate your answer correctly.

I wanted to get a dog from the animal sanctuary. We needed to find an animal that would be a good match for Granny.
